

September 2011

Cyprus: Klitos Symeonides

Dys 2.0 Valorization Conference September 8, Latsia Municipality

On the 8th of September, the International Literacy Day, a large VALORIZATION CONFERENCE was organized in the large municipality of Latsia, in Nicosia.

Forty personalities took part. Most of participants are key persons on Dyslexia and disabilities. Many representatives from Ministries, from associations, from services etc.

Each participants received a file with materials in Dyslexia and with a publication of 35 pages of the 7 DYS newsletters.

Klitos Symeonides open the conference emphasizing the importance to have as many as possible information about Dyslexia . He described the project DYS2 as an important and innovative project very useful for young dyslexic and of course for everybody.. The project was described online in details and some games from each part of the 7 areas of the senses were presented.

The conference was addressed by the Municipality of Latsia Council member Mr Pittaras who said that local authorities have many benefits of such projects, by the Supervisor of the Adult Education Centres of the Ministry of Education and Culture Mr Charalambous who stress the important of the project for adults and he said that the Adult Education Centres will make use of the project. Mr Michalis Ioannou, Director of the counseling, advising and educational psychology services at the Ministry of Education and Culture, responsible for all disabilities, express great satisfaction

